When Christmas Comes

by Abigail William Burton
in St Nicholas

WHEN Christmas comes I never mind the cold.
I like to get up prompt an' go to school,
An' do my sums,
An' clean the walks 'thout waitin' to be told—
Though I like sleddin' better as a rule,
Or buildin' forts—but nothin' ain't so bad,
When Christmas comes.

When Christmas comes I'd just as lief give half
My cookie to the baby, an' take care
About the crumbs.
It's fun to make the little fellow laugh,
An' I don't mind his taggin' every-where.
He can't help bein' little! I'm not mad
When Christmas comes.

When Christmas comes I don't forget to give
My shoes a wipe, an' scrub my ears
A lot
Till my head hums.
An' mother says, "That boy's too good to live!"
But I'm not 'fraid of dyin', cause I'm not
No different from always—only glad,
When Christmas comes!

CHRISTMAS-TIDE

The Christmas-tide, the tide of merriment
And feast, and love, and peace—most grand
All hail! I greet and yearn to honor thee!
Now let the table groan 'neath viands rich!
The smoking turkey with the truffle stuffed,
The sizzling roast, all fragrant with the fumes
Of oxazone; fish, flesh and fowl, and dainties
From all climes, full-ranged in rank profusion,
To tempt the timid appetite and fill
The forward one . . .
So, spread the table with luxurious eat,
And round it gather ever saint and sinner;
Bar out dull Care, and let the vixen wait,
Nor rob you, as she's apt to, of your dinner.
And shout your mirth, but do not let the screeds
O'erquell the little voice that stands demure
Outside your heart and gently tapping pleads:
"A sop to soothe the shiverings of the poor!"
—Joseph Whitton, in Table Talk.

CHRISTMAS MOTHER GOOSE

What are little boys made of, made of?
What are little boys made of?
Engines and drums
And fat sugar plums—
And that's what boys are made of.
What are little girls made of, made of?
What are little girls made of?
Dishes and dolls
And red rubber balls—
And that's what girls are made of.

CHRISTMAS TIME IS HERE

The Merry Christmas, with its generous boards
Its firelit hearths and gifts and blazing trees,
Its pleasant voices uttering gentle words,
Its genial mirth, attuned to sweet accords,
Its holy memories!
The fairest season of the passing year—
The Merry, Merry Christmas time is here.

HEART OF GOD.

By VACHELL LINDSAY.
O little heart of God,
Sweet intruding stranger,
You are laughing in my human breast,
A Christ-child in a manger.
Heart, dear heart of God,
Beside you now I kneel,
Strong heart of faith, O heart of mine,
Where God has set his seal.
Wild, thundering heart of God,
Out of my doubt I come,
And my foolish feet with prophet's feet
March with the prophet's drum!
